

Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Mother Teresa was born in 1910 in Macedonia.

She was a nun, founder of the Missionaries of Charity, in 2016 she was proclaimed a saint.

The order she founded is active in 126 countries today.

At 38, she leaves the convent to live in the slums of Calcutta, India with those whom she wants to help.

For over 45 years she ran a hospice for the poor, sick and orphans.

Her attitude teaches charity and selfless help.

For her charity, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979.
